Ayni Celebration

The Inca Elders bring their relations into perfect harmony, balance and alignment by practicing "Ayni", the law of reciprocity. Pierre will set intentions and will create perfect "AYNI", by doing a Despacho Mandala and by working with the elements of fire, sound and air, our breath. The most important relationship that we have is with ourselves. By creating inner Ayni we heal ourselves and when we are healed we can bring all of our relations into Ayni.

Sound Healing: The first part will bring the clearing of energy blockages and DNA imprints. Then Pierre will raise the frequencies and vibration of all the participants through the use of sound and light, awakening the Kundalini energy. Most of the participants will experience energetic shifts and healing at all different levels.

Despacho: A flower prayer Mandala offering to Mother Earth. This ancient Pre Inca ritual still performed by the Andean elders of Peru is used for bringing balance, abundance, health and alignment within all of our relations. We will put our prayers into the Despacho and anchor the New Consciousness on Mother Earth.

Fire Circle: Learn to breathe the sunlight that resides in the fire through our Qosqo or second chakra for purification and strengthening of our Luminous Field.

Energetic Transmissions:

Receive two powerful activations in the Karpay style of the Incas for deep transformation and acceleration on your spiritual path. The Birth Rite Activation establishes a direct connection to Spirit and to our Divine Nature. The Earth Rite Activation brings back the Divine Feminine into our soul matrix.

This is a powerful workshop for both men and women or couples. We will shift and release structures that no longer serve us creating the space for manifesting abundance, perfect health and a path toward Oneness.

Pierre integrates different techniques that he has mastered through years of work with Peruvian Shamanism, sound healing, energy healing, chanting and Kriya yoga meditation. Pierre is assisted by beings of light, angels, spiritual guides and healers from all different lineage's.
